HARRY'S HORSE.

The baby lies in its mother's arms,
Quiet, and pale, and thin;
But the little head is once more raised
As Harry comes bounding in.

A wooden horse in his hand he holds,
Dark gray with a long black mane;
And an eager, longing look lights up
The pale little face again.

"No baby dear, I will hold it close,
But I cannot give it to you;
I'm afraid you would let it fall, and break
My horse, so pretty and new."

But the pale little eager face still pleads,
Outstretched is the small hand still;
He stands for a moment, then holds it out,
"I'll lend it to baby, I will"

That day is past, and he finds it again
Where the baby had thrown it aside;
Her coral red, with its silver bells,
Still fast to the bridle tied.

There's a touch of paint off the bright green stick;
And a chip off the horse's ear;
But, Oh! not that to the boy's blue eye
Brings the quickly gathering tear.

And while Harry lives he will still be glad
That he lent her his horse that day;
For the Baby has gone where never again
Can she ask with his toys to play.

THE REGISTRY LAW.

A further supplement to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same: That from and after the passage of this act it shall be the duty of the several assessors within this Commonwealth, on receiving their transcripts from the County Commissioners, to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, whom they shall know, or who shall make claim to said assessors to be qualified voters within their respective townships, boroughs, wards, or other election districts, and opposite said names, state whether the said freeman is, or is not a housekeeper, and if he is, the number of his residence in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley, or court in which situated, and if in a town, where there are no numbers, the names of the street, alley, or court on which the said house fronts, also the occupation of the party, and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom; and, if working for another, the name of the employer; and write opposite said name the word voter; and, where said party claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he shall have voted in the township, borough, ward or district at five preceeding general elections; and, on exhibition of the certificate, the name shall be marked with the letter N; where the party has merely declared his intention to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election the name shall be marked D I; where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered, and if the party has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter R shall be placed opposite the name; and in all of the cases enumerated a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person, and in order to carry this law into effect for the present year it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the respective counties of this Commonwealth, and of the city of Philadelphia, within sixty days after the passage of this act, to cause alphabetical lists of the persons returned by the assessors as having been assessed in the several districts for the present year, to be made out and placed in the hands of the respective assessors, whose duty it shall be, on or before the 1st of September, to ascertain the qualifications of the persons so named and their claims to vote, as before mentioned, and perform, in regard to such persons, all of the duties enjoined by this act and furnish said list to the commissioners and election board, as hereinafter directed; Provided, That the names of all persons who were duly registered and permitted to vote at the next preceding general election in October, shall, without further proof or application, be placed on the list or registry directed to be prepared for the election in November, but they and all others shall be subject to challenge and their right to vote be passed on as prescribed by the fourth section of this act.

SECTION 2. On the list being completed and assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall, prior to the first of August next ensuing said assessments, put one copy thereof on the door of the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held and retain the other in his possession for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident within the said election district who shall desire to see the same, and it shall be the duty of said assessor to add, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant and mark opposite the name "C V," and immediately assess him with a tax. On the tenth day preceding the general election in October next thereafter it shall be the duty of the assessor to produce the list in his possession to the inspectors and judges of the election of the proper district at a meeting to be held by them as hereinafter directed.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the inspectors and judge of the election, together with the assessor, to attend at the place of holding the general elections for the respective election districts, on Saturday, the tenth day next preceding the second Tuesday in October, and on the other days hereinafter mentioned, and continue in open session at said place from nine o'clock, a. m., till six o'clock, p. m., of said day, to hear proof of the right of the respective persons to vote whose names are contained in the assessor's list, as before mentioned, or who shall apply to them to have their names registered; and all persons who have not previously voted in the election district shall make due proof, in the manner now prescribed by the election laws, of their right to vote in said district, and like proof shall be made in all cases by those applying for registry whose names are not enrolled by the assessor and marked "voter;" and it shall be the duty of the assessor, forthwith, to assess said person with a tax as required by law, on the proof being made to the satisfaction of the election board, if not already assessed; on the list of the voters in the said district being completed, it shall be the duty of the election officers aforesaid to cause duplicate copies thereof to be made out, forthwith, in alphabetical order, one of which shall be placed on the door of the house where the elections are to be held and the other retained by the judge of election, who shall hold the same subject to the inspection of any citizen of said district until the day of the general election, and produce the same thereat: Provided, That the officers hereinbefore named, when they shall deem it advisable, may meet for the purposes named in this section one or more days (not exceeding four) prior to the tenth day next preceding any general or presidential election, of which meeting and its purposes they shall give due public notice by written or printed handbills, posted in at least six of the most public places in their respective wards, in cities, boroughs, wards in boroughs, or townships: And provided further, That any ward in a city, borough, or ward in a borough, or township having but one assessor, is divided into two or more election precincts or districts, the judges and inspectors of all such election districts or precincts, in each ward in a city, borough, ward in a borough or township, respectively, shall meet at the usual place of holding the election in the precinct polling the largest number of votes at the last preceding election in their respective wards, boroughs or townships, and shall give due public notice as hereinbefore provided, of the time and place of their meeting, and in all cases where any ward in the city, borough, ward in the borough, or township is so divided into two or more election districts, it shall be the duty of the assessor to assess each voter in the election district to which he belongs and to furnish separate duplicate lists to the election officers in each election district. It shall be the further duty of the said inspectors, judges and assessor, in each ward, borough and township, to meet again, at the place fixed by the third section of this act, on the Thursday next preceding any general election, between the hours of nine and ten, a. m., and remain in session until six, p. m., for the purpose of hearing and determining any claims that may be presented to them by any person or persons claiming to be entitled to vote and whose name or names have not been entered on the registry of the election district in which he or they claim to be entitled to vote, each person so claiming to be entitled to vote therein shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least ten days next preceding the general election then next ensuing, which witness shall take and subscribe an affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to be registered shall also take and subscribe an affidavit stating where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized; and he shall also present his certificate of naturalization for examination, unless he has been a voter in said election district for five years then next preceeding; that he has resided in this Commonwealth one year, or, if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding the general election then next following; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein, that he has not been registered as a voter elsewhere; that he paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before the election for which he proposes to be registered, and that he was prevented from registering his name at the first meeting for that purpose as directed by this act; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affidavit was assessed, and when, where and by whom paid, and the tax receipt thereof shall be produced for examination unless the affiant shall make oath that it has been lost or destroyed or that he never received any receipt: Provided, That if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a citizen of the United States; that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, or will be on or before the day of the next election ensuing, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such an election, he shall be entitled to be registered as a voter, although he shall not have paid taxes.—The said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the said board until the day of the election, and shall, at the close thereof, be placed in the ballot box along with the other papers now required by law to be preserved therein. If said board shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, the name or names shall be added to the list alphabetically, with like effect as if done ten days before the election, and they shall forthwith be placed with the other names at the foot of the list on the door or house of the place of election, and as each person whose name is enrolled votes at said election, one of the clerks thereof shall mark on or opposite to the name "voted," and it shall not be lawful for the officers of the election to receive the vote of any person whose name was not contained in said registry, made out and put up at least eight days before the election, as aforesaid, or in the registry made out on the Thursday next preceding the election, and the reception of the vote of any person not so registered shall constitute a misdemeanor in the election officers so receiving it, and, on conviction thereof, the election officers so offending shall be subject to fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SECTION 4. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained in the registry, and the right to vote has been passed on by the election board, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and again acted upon by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, as required by existing laws, except where his case comes within the fifth provision of the sixty-fourth section of the act of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, to which this is a supplement, although the same may have been exhibited to the election board before registry; and, on the vote of such persons being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to cause to be distinctly written thereon the word "voted," with the month and year, and if the election officers at the same or any other district shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of such certificate, and the person who shall offer such second vote, the persons so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on the conviction thereof, be fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court; Provided, Said fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars and the imprisonment shall not exceed one year, and like punishment shall be inflicted on the officers of the election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SECTION 5. On the close of the polls, the registry list on which the memorandum of voting has been kept as before directed, shall be sealed with, and preserved in the same manner now required by law as to the tally papers, and not taken out until after the next meeting of the Legislature, unless required on the hearing of a contested election, or for the purpose of being used at the election of Presidential electors, or preparatory thereto, as hereinafter provided, after which it shall again be sealed up and carefully preserved as before directed.

SECTION 6. Ten days preceeding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the election board, and the proper assessor, to meet at the place of holding the general election in the district, for the same length of time and in the manner directed in the third section of this act, and, then and there, hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the registry, and who claim the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and to add thereto the names of such persons as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and if the person shall not have been previously assessed, it shall be the duty of the assessor, forthwith to assess him with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days prior to holding the same, when the same course shall be pursued in every particular in regard to receiving, or rejecting the votes, marking the same on the registry list, endorsing the naturalization papers with the proper month and year, preserving the papers, and all other things as are required by this act at the general elections in October.

SECTION 7. At every special election directed by law, and at every city ward, borough, or township election, the registry, required to be kept as aforesaid, may be used by the proper officers as evidence of the persons entitled to vote thereat, and said officers shall require all persons whose names are not on the registry, whether challenged or not, to show that they possess the right of suffrage at said election, but nothing herein contained shall make the want of said registry conclusive against the right of the person to vote at such election, but the same shall be judged of and decided as in other cases.

SECTION 8. Before entering on the duties of their offices under this act, the respective assessors, and inspectors, and judges of the elections, shall take an oath before some competent authority, in addition to oaths now required by law, "to perform the several duties enjoined by this act, with fidelity, and according to the requirements thereof in every particular, to the best of their ability." They shall each have the power to administer oaths to every person claiming the right to be assessed, or in regard to any other matter, or thing required to be done, or inquired into by said officers under this act; and any wilful false swearing by any person, in relation to any matter, or thing, concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers under this act, shall be punished as perjury. Said assessors, inspectors, and judges, shall each receive the same compensation for the time neccessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined, as provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases, with a proper allowance, to be judged of by the said commissioners, for the expenses of making the list of registries hereby required to be made out; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor, to assess a tax against any person whatever, within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday in October in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President or Vice President of the United States; and a violation of this provision shall be misdemeanor, and subject the officer so offending to a fine, on conviction, of not less than ten, nor exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SECTION 9. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stated under oath, that they believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two persons, judicious, sober, and intelligent citizens of the county, to act as overseers of said election. Said persons shall be selected from different political parties where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party. Said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out, and signed by the election officers, to keep a list of the voters if they see proper, to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses under oath in regard to the right of suffrage at said election, to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers, selected and appointed, every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duty, and if said officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present, and perform their duty as aforesaid, or they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district shall be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election.

SECTION 10. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, and give out the same in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court in presence of some of the judges thereof, according to the act of Congress, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any person shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, and shall vote or attempt to vote thereon, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and either, or any of the persons, their aiders, or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SECTION 11. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect, or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without resonable legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and if any assessor, or election officer, shall enrol any person as a voter who he knows is not qualified, or refuse to enrol any one who he shall know is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office and, on conviction, be punished by fine and imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface, or shall destroy any registry of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down, or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, by, or under the direction of the election officers, with like fraudulent, or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding two years.

SECTION 12.—If any tax collector is found guilty of issuing a receipt for taxes not having been paid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and suffer an imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than three months for every offence.

SECTION 13. That for all elections hereafter holden under this act, the polls shall be opened between the hour of six and seven o'clock, a. m., and be closed at six o'clock p. m.

SECTION 14. That the county commissioners shall at the proper expense of the county, procure and furnish all blanks made necessary by this act.

SECTION 15. All laws inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

REMOVE THE TAXES.

The solution of the financial problem is simple. It is expressed in the single word RETRENCHMENT.

Disband the Army.

Reduce the Navy to a peace footing.

Cut down the Civil Expenses of Government.

Then Repeal the Taxes. Abolish the Income Tax, which grinds five percent off the interest of every city, corporation or railroad bond, whether the holders be poor or rich. Abolish the licenses to merchants, hotel and restaurant keepers and professional men. Abolish all taxes, except excises on liquors and tobacco, and if necessary, stamps.

The Manufacturers clamored for the repeal of their taxes, and Congress removed them. Now let the People clamor for the repeal of their taxes, and require Congress to remove them. If Congress refuses, the people should apply the proper remedy and remove Congress.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

SOMETHING FOR THE SICK.—Dr. Keyser says: "Frequenfly we find sick people whose stomachs reject all kinds of nourishment until conditions follow that in many instances terminate fatally. In twenty instances in which I heard the popular sick-bed nourishment prescribed and rejected by an invalid's enfeebled stomach, I have never known the simple saucer of parched corn pudding or bowl of gruel refused. The corn is roasted brown, precisely as we roast coffee, ground as fine as meal in a coffee mill, and made into either mush, gruel, or thin cakes baked brown, and given either warm or cold, clear or with whatever dressing the stomach will receive or retain. Parched corn and meal boiled in skimmed milk, and fed frequently to children suffering from summer diarrhœa, will almost always cure as it will dysentery in adults."

HOW THEY RETRENCH.—The other day a couple of Mongrels attempted to get into the Tennessee Legislature, and were beaten by some eight thousand votes. The people did not want them—the Mongrel Legislature did; although the Committee on elections reported unanimously against the right of the "loil" claimants to a seat. What was the result? The "loil" majority in the Legislature boldly robbed the State treasury of five thousand dollars, giving the sum to the two beaten candidates, as a solace for the loss of their seats in that body. This is a specimen of the legislation, not only in all the Mongrelized States, but in Washington year after year.—Day Book.

REMARKABLE FREAK OF NATURE.—The Salem (Ind.) Times says that Abner Fields, of Howard township, in Washington county had a cow which was delivered of twenty-eight calves in one day. The two largest are about the size of ordinary twin calves, the next largest about one-half size, and the remaining twenty-five about the size of an ordinary rat. They are all dead, mother included, except the two largest, which are doing well. The statement above is from Mr. Fields himself, and from several neighbors of his, who witnessed the sight, and who are as fully entitled to belief as any person in the world. This is the most singular freak of nature, of the kind, of which we have ever heard.

COUGH CURE.—One who has tested its efficacy, and who is desirous of alleviating the barking which afflicts our community, advises them to roast a lemon very carefully, without burning it; when it is thoroughly hot, cut and squeeze into a cup, upon three ounces of sugar, finely powdered.—Take a spoonful whenever your cough troubles you. It is as good as it is agreeable to the taste. Rarely has it been known to fail of giving relief.

AN Irishman a short time in this country, was eating boiled green corn. After eating off all the corn, he passed the cob back to the lady who sat at the head of the table, saying: "Would you please be so kind as to put some more beans on the sthick?"

IF ill luck befalls you, think that it may be a blessing to somebody else, and that your turn may come next.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

THE "WORLD" AND "AGE."

We will also furnish the GAZETTE and New York Weekly World, or Philadelphia Weekly Age, for the campaign, at the following rates:

1 copy GAZETTE,	and	1 of World, or Age,		$	1.75
10 copies	do	and 10	do	do	15.00
20 do	do	and 20	do	do	28.00
50 do	do	and 50	do	do	65.00

☞ Invariably, cash in advance.

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THE REGISTRY LAW.

We publish, on our outside, a copy of the Registry Law, passed at the late session of the Legislature. This Know-Nothing gag should be thoroughly studied by every Democrat, so that he and his friends may not suffer disfranchisement under it. File it away for reference.

We ask people to note,

1. That under this law, an odious discrimination is made against foreign born citizens. Germans, Englishmen, Welshmen, Scotchmen, who have hitherto voted the "Republican" ticket, behold how your party strikes at your citizenship! Is such a party favorable to equal rights?

2. That it puts every citizen who would exercise the right of suffrage, to much trouble and vexation, in attendance upon the meeting of the board of registration, making proof of his right to vote, &c.

3. That it changes the hour of closing the polls from seven to six o'clock, thus aiming to disfranchise the laboring classes.

4. That it entails an additional expense of thousands of dollars upon the tax-payers, for extra services on the part of Assessors and Election officers.

5. That it is in direct conflict with the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which defines the qualifications of a voter as follows:

"In elections by the citizens, every white person of the age of twenty one years, having resided in this state one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election, shall enjoy the rights of an elector."

IMPEACHMENT.

The "High Old Court of Impeachment," having ruled out the evidence proposed to be given by the President in proof of his proper and lawful intent in attempting to remove Stanton, the defence closed their part of the case. It was offered by the President's counsel to prove, by the members of the Cabinet, that Johnson's motive in attempting the removal of Stanton, was to bring the Tenure of Office Bill to a judicial test, in order that the question of its validity might be decided by the proper tribunal. It was also offered by them to prove, by the same witnesses, that Stanton and the remainder of the Cabinet advised the President that the Tenure of Office Bill is unconstitutional, and that Stanton and Seward made the draft of the message in which the President vetoed that Bill. None of this evidence was admitted, notwithstanding the fact that Chief Justice Chase ruled it to be clearly admissible. This action of the Senate shows that the President is being tried by a packed jury, incapable of giving him a fair and impartial trial. His removal seems to be a foregone conclusion. A majority of the Senate had made up their minds to convict him, before they heard any of the evidence in the case. Their partizans openly and shamelessly proclaim that Johnson must be convicted and gotten rid of, right or wrong! They say such a course is dictated by party necessity! They besiege those Radical Senators who have refused to commit themselves to their desperate scheme, with threats and all sorts of party appliances, in order to force them to vote for conviction! Expectants of office under Wade, are in the lobby, button-holing and dragooning Senators to vote for conviction! Radical newspapers are hectoring Senators to compel them to vo e for conviction! Even the pulpit (hide your faces, ye followers of the meek and lowly Nazarene) is belching forth its anathemas against Senators who are suspected of being against conviction! Call ye this justice? Call ye this a fair and impartial trial? History will record it as the crowning shame of that party, which, in order to retain its leaders in office, has changed our form of government and now seeks to destroy the whole fabric of Republican liberty.

A few more days will end this wicked and infamous proceeding. A few more days will determine whether there is virtue enough left in the Senatorial Sodom to save it from the fire and brimstone of the Coming Wrath.

"If the assassination could trammel up the consequence, and catch,
With its surcease, success;"

But, Senators, ye

To plague the inventor."

SOUTHERN ELECTIONS.

There have recently been held in Georgia and North Carolina, elections to ratify the Negro Reconstruction Constitutions, and for State officers and members of Congress. These elections have been continued for four or five days, in order to enable the negroes to repeat their votes at different polls. They were managed on the Radical side by the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau. Notwithstanding the disfranchisement of large numbers of the whites, the contest in each of these states, was a very close one. Many negroes, already disgusted with Radical treachery and meanness, voted the Democratic ticket. "Dem mules" promised them by the "carpet-baggers," have not been forth-coming. At this writing it is not known whether the Negro Constitutions are ratified or not. At the elections on the Convention question, some months ago, in Georgia and North Carolina, the Radical Negroes carried those States by large majorities, the latter by 50,000. Now, they are close. Negro Suffrage will be the death of Radicalism yet.

A NEW SECRETARY OF WAR.

The President, on Friday last, withdrew the nomination of Thomas Ewing, as Secretary of War, and appointed Gen. John M. Schofield, the present commander of the Virginia Military District. Schofield is a "Republican," and by this appointment the President shows that his reasons for desiring Stanton's removal, are personal and not political. Is Johnson, then, to be removed for trying to put out one "Republican" in order that another may take his place? Schofield is one of the great Union commanders; yet, we venture to predict, that the Senate will not confirm him.

"PICKLIPS" is on the rampage again. He screeched at the Radical meeting on Tuesday night. For want of argument he uttered a wilful and deliberate falsehood in regard to the editor of this paper. We shall attend to his case upon the stump. He once prosecuted us for libel, (on the ground that we had charged him with certain crimes,) and didn't make much. The next time we take the stump, we shall give him a chance to sue us for slander.

Great Popular Demonstration!

THE DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL!

Speeches, Resolutions, &c.

Pursuant to previous notice a large number of the Democrats and Conservative people of Bedford county, assembled in the Court House, in Bedford, on Monday evening last, 27th ult. On motion, JOHN C. FIGARD, Esq., of Broad Top, was appointed President, assisted by the following named gentlemen as Vice Presidents: Hon. W. T. Daugherty, Isaac E. Reighard, Geo. Elder, Esq., David Karns, W. L. Weeks, Col. F. D. Beegle, Hon. Jos. B. Noble, Isaac Kensinger, Esq., Jacob Beckley, Esq., Thos. Fisher, Caselton Ake, W. M. Pearson, Esq., James Cessna, Esq., J. B. Anderson, Esq., H. P. Diehl, George Baughman, David Howsare, Daniel Fletcher, Henry Fluke, Esq., Caspar Stroup, James C. Devore, Esq., John Koons, and John B. Fluke, Esq., and by J. M. Gephart, J. M. Vanhorn, Esq., Henry W. Reed, Jacob Kensinger and Richard Sill, as Secretaries.

The meeting was then addressed by B. F. MEYERS and O. E. SHANNON, Esqs., who discussed the issues before the people, at length, and handled without gloves, the revolutionary and desperate men who lead the Radical party.

The meeting was enlivened by choice music discoursed by the Democratic Brass Band, to which the people of the county are indebted for frequent and very fine musical entertainments.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the Constitution and the Union, and three more for General W. S. Hancock, the man who saved Useless Grant at the Wilderness:

Resolved, By the Democrats of Bedford county, in Mass Meeting assembled, that in this momentous crisis in public affairs, when the Constitution is set at naught, when the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government are made subservient to a plotting faction in the legislative branch, and when that faction is declared to be "a law unto itself," it behooves each and every citizen to reflect with calmness, and decide with patriotic solicitude, upon a proper remedy for the evils which beset us.

Resolved, That the impeachment and threatened removal of the President of the United States, for no other alleged reasons than that he attempted to remove an odious member of his Cabinet, and that he exercised the privilege of publicly expressing his opinions on great political issues, privileges exercised by the best of presidents, is an outrage unparallelled in the history of any civilized country, and will cover the nation with unutterable and eternal shame.

Resolved, That we, the people, plainly perceive the motives of the men who are plotting to remove the President, to be simply greed for the spoils of office and the sore necessity of a reckless party which is determined to keep itself in power, though it be at the cost of the honor, the peace and the liberty of the people, but which is doomed to disaster and defeat, even by its own desperate and despicable measures to save itself from annihilation. The assassination of Lincoln was the deed of a misguided enthusiast; the impeachment of Johnson is the deliberate and malicious act of corrupt and unscrupulous politicians. The Impeachers are assassins actuated by malice prepense.

Resolved, That we call upon the people to rebuke the greediness for office which seeks to remove the lawful Executive, which throttles the Supreme Court by partizan legislation, which forces Negroes to vote at the point of the bayonet, which disfranchises thousands of intelligent White Americans, and which stops at no outrage upon law, liberty, decency, or right, to satisfy its insatiable and beastly lust.

Resolved, That we are in favor of reducing the Army and Navy to a peace establishment, thereby saving at least one hundred millions of dollars to the Government, annually, and that we are, furthermore, in favor of the discontinuance of the National Loafing School for Southern Negro Lazzaroni, commonly called the Freedmen's Bureau, thus saving millions more of the people's taxes, and at the same time causing the idle blacks to earn their bread and to assist in re-building the wasted prosperity of the South.

Resolved, That we are in favor of equal taxation of all species of property, that we are opposed to all legislation for the benefit of a class, at the expense of the many, that we believe the financial system which enables the National Banks to draw compound interest upon their bonds, to be wrong and dangerous in principle, and we are anxious that the Revenue laws be so modified that the burdens of Government shall be equally distributed in proportion to the wealth of individuals, and that the National Debt may be paid at the earliest possible period and in the manner least hurtful to the interests of the people.

Resolved, That we condemn and hold up to the execration of the public, the reckless and extravagant appropriations made by the late State Legislature, attacking as they did, even the Sinking Fund of the Commonwealth, and that the thanks of the axpayers are due to Hon. W. A. Wallace, and other Democratic members of the Legislature, who, by their sleepless vigilance, obtained a reduction in the appropriations to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars.

Resolved, That the country needs A CHANGE in its Lawgivers; Commerce cries out, from coast to coast, for A CHANGE; the Manufacturing Interest calls, with the voice of ten thousand starving operatives, for A CHANGE; the Farmer, as he ploughs his land mortgaged for the payment of the increasing Public Debt, demands A CHANGE; the Mechanic, as he counts the cost of the necessaries of life and finds that the prices of his wares do not increase in a corresponding degree, sighs for A CHANGE; and the Laboring Man, he "who eats his bread in the sweat of his face," as he sees penury stare him in the face, prays from the depths of his soul, for A CHANGE!

Resolved, Therefore, that all who desire this "consummation so devoutly to be wished," A CHANGE from Radical Destructiveness to Constitutional Healthfulness and Soundness, are invited to act with the Democratic organization, whose mission it is to restore the country to perfect peace and to that normal financial condition in which alone the various avocations of life can be pursued with safety and success.

Resolved, That in the nominations of Hon. Charles E. Boyle, for Auditor General, and Gen. W. H. Ent, for Surveyor General, the people of Pennsylvania are presented with candidates in every way worthy of their support. The former a civilian, trained in the school of honesty and tried and proved as a faithful representative of the people, the latter a gallant and faithful soldier, whose name is a household word with the brave and never-to-be fargotten Pennsylvania Reserves; let us rally around these noble standard-bearers and push foward to assured victory!

GRANT'S INTEMPERANCE.

For a year past, the press of both political parties, have been engaged in discussing the alleged intemperance of Gen. U. S. Grant. We have thus far studiously avoided any reference to the subject, for we try to make it a rule not to bring charges against any candidate, unless we believe them to be true. Lately we have become satisfied that the allegation that Grant is in the habit of getting drunk, is, indeed, too true. The subject has been brought before the public by Grant's own political associates. Wendell Phillips, the avant-courier of Radicalism, has printed the accusation of drunkenness against Grant, time after time, whilst Anna Dickinson, the Radical lecturess, has made it before a dozen audiences. We append a letter written by Wendell Phillips, copied from the Anti-Slavery Standard, of April 11, upon this subject:

"So of Grant's intemperance. We think the evidence was sufficient before. But if anything in the way of proof was lacking, it is amply supplied by a speech of Mr. Dodge, of New York, the President of the National Temperance Society, and by the letter of Mr. Senator Wilson, published in the Boston Daily Advertiser, April 1.

Mr. Dodge has been in Washington, and assures temperance men they need have no fears. He knows of the reports of the General's recent published intoxication. At such a moment, and speaking as an officer of a temperance society, Mr. Dodge would have denied the truth of those reports if he had been able to do so. His omission to do that, and the evasive, general terms in which he indulges, will convince any thoughtful tetotaller that Mr. Dodge knows and feels that he cannot deny the General's intemperance. He has schooled himself into thinking that it does not amount to enough to peril the State, and hence, letting his party feeling override his temperance principles, he is willing to run the risk. What we claim, is, that, before he asks us to run the risk, he let us know the exact facts. Then we will decide whether to run it or not.

Mr. Wilson's letter is even more characteristic, and therefore more evasive. He, too, knows of the reports of Grant's public drunkenness on a particular day in last January. If we mistake not, these reports were brought more than once to his notice. In his letter he says: "I have seen Gen. Grant in camp, in his office, at his own house, and at dinner parties where liquors were freely used by others, but have never seen him drink even a glass of wine, nor have I ever seen him when I had the slightest reason to think he was in any degree, under the influence of drink."

Of course, no doubt. We can bring 10,000 people in that very city of Washington who never saw Grant drunk. There are 10,000,000 in the North who never saw Grant drunk. We never saw Grant drunk or sober. But Mr. Wilson knows well that the country never asked him, as a prominent tetotaller, whether he had seen Grant drunk. The question was, "Sir, living in Washington, knowing the facts or easily able to know them, what are the facts as to these alleged public exposures of your Presidential candidate?" Mr. Senator Wilson undertakes to answer that question.—His answer is, he never saw Grant drunk. If any shrewd lawyer had, in such circumstances, received from a witness such an answer, he would have asked no further question; but taken it for granted and argued to the jury, that the witness substantially admitted the drunkenness. To us no further evidence is necessary. Knowing Henry Wilson, we see in this equivocation convincing evidence that he cannot and dares not deny that he has heard from trustworthy sources of this public drunken exposure of his candidate. Mr. Wilson's course on this occasion is precisely the same he pursued a year ago, when, having originated a report as to the drunkenness of a Massachusetts Congressman, and afraid to meet the consequences, he equivocated himself out of the responsibility. Now, when all that Congressman's constituents admit his intoxication, it is not probable that Mr. Wilson would think it worth while to shuffle. If Grant as President, should show himself in Mr. Dodge's felicitous language, "fully capable of filling Andy Johnson's place," drunkenness and all; or when Grant is thrown aside, because he had been President, or is not needed for that office, we shall hear the absolute truth about this vice even from Henry Wilson. Now when the temperance body need his knowledge, he obeys that same law of timid self-preservation which shocked his admirers when it carried him selfishly into the Know-nothing party to save his place. We call this letter equivocation. It is a mild phrase considering the vast peril, and the value the writer professes to set on temperance. We should be amply justified in describing it by a much stronger term. And the constant repetition of this offense by this public servant seems almost to call for such frank description.

In view of this element in his career the success of Mr. Wilson is one of the most alarming results of Democratic institutions; sad evidence of how often they throw worthless men to the top. WENDELL PHILLIPS.

ANOTHER VICTORY!

Thunder Out in Grant's Neighborhood!

Chicago Goes Democratic by nearly 1,000 majority!

Democratic Gain, since last year, 4800!

The "black hole" of Chicago has been redeemed! At the election held in that city, on the 21st ult., for Recorder and Clerk of the Courts, the Democratic candidates were elected by nearly 1,000 majority. The vote was a heavy one. The whole vote cast was 23,650; last year the whole vote was 19,880. This year the vote stood: Democratic, 12,284, Radical, 11,374; last year, Democratic 7,977, Radical, 11,901; showing a net Democratic gain of 4,834! That will do for Chicago. Grant used to live out that way. There is some talk of the Radicals changing their place of holding their National Convention, since this result in the Lake City.

FORNEY UNDER A CLOUD.

Simon Cameron is after J. W. Forney, with a peculiarly sharp stick, upon which the notorious plate-licker of former Presidential kitchens, is in imminent danger of being impaled.—Cameron alleges that there is a deficit of $40,000 in Forney's accounts, as Secretary of the Senate, which is not explained. He (Cameron) offered a resolution, the other day, for the appointment of a committee to investigate the charge, which was adopted. We hope Forney's rascality may be fully exposed, and not merely subjected to the usual white-washing process of a "Committee of Investigation." He is a contemptible scoundrel and the people ought to be made acquainted with his true character.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Patient Public; The Bondholders' Candidate; Grant on the Double Shuffle; The Poverty-Stricken Ulysses; His friends want more; The New Litany, &c.

ADDISON, PA., April 18, 1868.

DEAR GAZETTE:—If anything could surprise one, acquainted with the events of the past eight years, the patience of that overburdened ass, the Public, would. A few months ago, and yours truly, in common with hundreds of others, firmly believed that the addition of a few more feathers, would cause it to turn and rend the cruel taskmasters in the State and National Legislatures, whose energies seemed to be concentrated upon increasing the burden of public indebtedness beyond all hope of liquidation. The exemplary patience displayed since, has convinced us all that there is a deeper depth, to which we must passively descend, or be rudely thrust by the Law-breaking, Constitution-destroying, and God-defying miscreants, ruling the Congress, and through it, the once free people of the United States. But the theme is not inspiriting; let us change it.

The Bondholders in the East are still vigorously at work, through the aid of venal pens and their large corruption fund, to force upon the Nation another Illinois prodigy, as President. The former one was distinguished for a certain species of wit and readiness at repartee. The present one is distinguished for being devoid of wit, words and ideas, and having great talent for silence. From one extreme to another. Grant, however, is reputed to be hard to beat dancing Jim Crow or executing the Double Shuffle in regular Broadhorn style; arrumor we are disposed to credit, as none but very good performers would undertake to execute those difficult steps on Pennsylvania Avenue, on Sunday afternoons, when the Terpsichorean critics of the Capital, would have nothing to distract their attention from the performance.

That nations should liberally pay for services rendered and benefits conferred, is conceded. Individual economy is praiseworthy; National economy is meanness. Therefore, when A. T. Stewart, the New York Millionaire and Bondholder, and Henry Hilton, "Chairman Ex. Com.," speak of rewarding Gen. Grant's services, we fully agree with them, as it is right and proper that his services should be paid for. It were a joke, indeed, if common soldiers, who only risked life, limb, and health, who for the loss of an arm or leg, should receive from a greatful and munificent Government, the stipend of $8.00, or $15.00 per month, and that so readily and easily that they don't earn more than twice that sum in drawing it, if the services and sacrifices of the Illinois Hero are to be forgotten. Let us see how matters stand. In the year 1861, Hiram U., or Ulysses S. Grant was a porter in a Galena leather store, at a salary of one dollar per day, payable every Saturday night, oftener, if the saloon keepers and landlords required it, and refused to wait. On the breaking out of the unholy rebellion, he unhesitatingly threw up his porter's situation, to accept a captaincy, sacrificed his business connection without a sigh, and eventually condescended to accept a colonel's commission, with the "few paltry emoluments thereto appertaining." I was informed by a member of his regiment, that the officers at one time held a meeting, asking for his dismissal from the service, on the grounds of drunkenness and incompetency. The war was fiercely waged; battles, siege and storm succeeded each other; the earth was sodden with gore, was drunken with human blood, but through it all Hiram Ulysses calmly smoked on. It is not on record that he ever went without a full meal, ever wet his feet or was deprived of a cigar during all that fearful time. 'Tis true, the rank and file underwent suffering in every form, but watchful eyes and willing hands carefully guarded the modern Ulysses, and turned aside privations, fatigue and suffering from him; to be borne by others, born under a less lucky aspect. And when the end was come and Lee had surrendered, when at last the spinal column of the rebellion was fractured, there were Sherman, Thomas, Rosecranz, and hundreds of others, who had made vigorous and repeated efforts against the aforesaid vertebrae, all cast aside by the watchful eyes and willing hands that guarded the slumbers and covered his blunders, and blew the trumpets for the modern Ulysses; and he alone received the praise and glory, with "the few paltry emoluments thereto appertaining." For instance, palatial residences furnished in the highest style of modern art, in Washington, Philadelphia, Galena and other places "too tedious to enumerate." Bonds, gold-bearing, of course, horses, carriages, pianos, greenbacks, an office especially created for him, with a "few paltry emoluments, &c.," say about TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR FOR LIFE, &c., &c. Notwithstanding all this, A. T. Stewart and the Bondholders, like the horseleech, are lustily bawling to the people, GIVE! GIVE! MORE! MORE.

And while on the Grant question, let us not forget the Old Man Imbecile, the disgustingly garrulous old Grant, the Biographer of Ulysses, the correspondent of Bonner, the pet of the "Ledger," an illustrious example of ignorance, impudence and overweening self-conceit. The man is fully described by the names he selected for his children, offending alike against good taste and christian tradition, fit companion for the intellectual Aunt, "who was a great reader of History and wanted the baby called Ulysses." Oh! worthy and mighty race! Plymouth Rock, all hail! Baked Beans and Puritanic Godliness for ever! Bah! Is it not enough to make one forswear sack and live cleanly?

When a new popular Litany is written, we would suggest the following:

From Grum Grants, from garrulous Grants and Grants generally, good God guard us!

—The Democratic New York Legislature has passed an act for the suppression of obscene publications. 'Tis well for Forney that he prints in Pennsylvania.

COURT.—This is Court week, we are told, but there are but few people in town to attest the fact. The weather is very fine and farmers are taking advantage of it, to attend to their work. This is sensible. Let the Court and the lawyers do their business, themselves. Bread is better than law.—Judge D. W. Rowe, the additional law judge for this district, arrived here on Monday last.

NEW DRESS.—Our neighbors of the Fulton Democrat, have brought out their sheet in a brand new dress. The Democrat is an excellent little paper and deserves the united support of the gallant Democracy of little Fulton.

REMOVAL.—L. Deffbaugh has removed his Gunsmith shop to the building in the rear of Hartley's Hardware store, near the bridge on the Hollidaysburg road.

THIS WAY!—Hartley and Metzgar invite the attention of the public to their advertisements in another column. Children's Wagons, Genuine Greencastle Grain Cradles, and other nice things are to be had at their store.

IMPORTANT TO BANKRUPTS.—Every applicant for the benefit of the bankrupt act, after the 1st of June next, must show that he has property sufficient to pay 50 cents on the dollar, or has obtained a release from enough of his creditors to pay 50 cents on the dollar to the remainder.

DECEASE OF DR. BAUGHER.—Rev. Dr. H. L. Baugher, President of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, died at that place, on the 14th ult. Dr. Baugher was an eminent scholar and divine, and his loss will be severely felt by the institution over which he presided with such marked ability and usefulness.

DEATH OF EX-SHERIFF FORE, OF FULTON COUNTY.—We learn from the Fulton Democrat, of last week, that Ex-Sheriff David Fore, of that county, died on the 18th inst., after a brief illness. We knew Mr. Fore well, and it grieves us to record the death of so good and true a man. May he rest in peace!

PHALON AND THE POPE.—Three new Italian belles were baptized by the Pope, a short time ago—thousands of American belles are self baptized every day, with PHALONS "FLOR DE MAYO," the new perfume for the handkerchief. Sold by all the druggists.

"How ill white hairs become a fool and jester," said Henry IV. How ill, indeed, they become any one. 'Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative,' occasionally applied, will keep the hair fresh and glossy in old age as in youth. To this valuable article was awarded the only prize medal over all competitors. Tri-States Union.

A WRITER in Blackwood's Magazine gives the following excellent advice to talkers: "No one who wishes that conversation should be pleasant to his neighbors as well as himself, should speak more than two or three sentences at once. However much we may have to say, it will be held the more agreeably said for giving others the opportunity of assenting, illustrating, qualifying, or even contradicting. The ball needs to be returned by the opposite player to make a lively game."

CURE FOR CROUP.—Dr. Trevitt, editor of the Columbus (Ohio) Crisis, and an experienced physician, publishes the following:

Croup.—As this is the season of the year in which this infantile disease is most prevalent, we publish the following recipe from the Paris Medical Gazette: "Mix one tea-spoonful of sulphur in a glass of water, and give a tea-spoonful of the mixture every hour. The disease is cured in two days, the only symptom remaining being a cough arising from the loose pieces of false membrane in the trachea."

THE STATE OF MATRIMONY.—Our devil is responsible for the following, which may be of interest to emigrants who are journeying thither; he says the State is bounded by hugging and kissing on one side, and cradles and babies on the other. Its chief productions are population, broomsticks and staying out late at night. It was discovered by Adam and Eve, while trying to find a passage out of Paradise, the climate is sultry until you cross the equinoctial time of housekeeping, when squally weather sets in with such power as to keep all hands as cool as cucumbers. For the principal roads leading to this interesting State, consult the first pair of bright eyes you run against.

No loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or even a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is grey or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A ALLEN'S improved (new style) Hair restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Price one Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

AMENDMENTS TO THE FISH LAW.—The following amendment to the law relating to fishing in the Susquehanna river and its tributaries, were recently passed through both houses of the Legislature, and have been approved by the Governor:

A supplement to the act relating to the passage of fish in the Susquehanna river and certain of its tributaries.

Be it enacted, &c., That the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read: Section fifth. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to build, extend, or place any fish basket, fish trap or other device, permanent or temporary, in the nature of a fish basket, or fish trap, across or at any place in the Susquehanna river, or other streams designated or embraced in this act, neither shall it be lawful to fish with any seine or other system of entrapping in numbers, within two hundred yards of any sluice, or other device, erected for the passage of fish as described in this act, or upon or about any dam or sluice that shall have been erected for the passage of fish as described in this act, or upon or about any dam in or upon which such sluice shall have been erected, or to draw any seine or net in any of the said rivers or streams within one-half mile below any of said sluices, or to use any device or means to frighten the fish or spawns, or fry, or otherwise to prevent their free passage up or down the said streams, or passage ways, at any distance whatever from said dams, and any person offending against the provision of this section, their aiders or abettors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned, at the discretion of the court, for a period of not more than twelve months, one-half of the fine above mentioned to be paid to the informer, or complainant; information may be laid as in any other case of misdemeanor by any citizen before any justice of the peace in the district in which the offence shall be committed; and it shall be the duty of all constables, in their townships, wards, or districts, to keep special watch and make return of any violation of this law to each and every court of quarter sessions in the county, or counties, in and for which they may be constables, as in the case of other misdemeanors, coming within the line of the duty of said constable as guardians of the peace and of which they are bound to take notice and make return.

SEC. 2. The office of commissioner designated in the act to which this is a supplement, is hereby further continued under the appointment of the Governor and as provided for in said act, but shall cease and determine on the 31st day of December, 1868, the duties of said commissioner in addition to, and in connection with those now specified by law, shall be to use his best endeavors in general furtherance of the objects of these acts, and if any concurrent legislation be necessary in conjunction with the State of Maryland, to ascertain and report such proposed legislation to the Governor, who will submit the same, with his recommendations favorable or otherwise without delay to the legislature of this commonwealth, and the duties of the said Commissioner shall be further extended so as to include the consideration of and reporting to the Governor such action as may be necessary and practicable in view of the planting and propagation of edible fish in such of the rivers and streams of this commonwealth as may be fitted for the same.

ELISHA W. DAVIS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JAS. L. GRAHAM,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. JNO. W. GEARY.

A NEW GAME LAW.—The Legislature of this State has passed a very stringent law for the preservation of game and insectivorous birds. The bill provides that it shall not be lawful for any person within the Commonwealth to shoot, kill, or in any way trap or destroy any blue bird, swallow, martin, or other insectivorous bird at any season of the year; that no deer, fawn or elk shall be hunted or killed between the first of December and the first of September in any year; that no wild turkey, pheasant or rabbit shall be hunted or killed between the first of January and the first of September in any year; that no partridge or quail shall be taken or killed between the 20th of December and 20th of October; no woodcock or snipe shall be killed between the first of March and the first of September; that no wild turkey, pheasant, partridge, quail, woodcock or snipe shall be trapped or taken by means of traps, snares, nets, springs, or other means of taking such birds other than by shooting, at any time whatever, nor shall any trap, net or snare be made, erected, or set either wholly or in part, for the purpose of such trapping or taking; that no eggs of any kind of birds above enumerated and hereby declared to be game, or any insectivorous birds shall be taken or destroyed at any time.

THE WILLOW WHISTLE.—The pleasant spring weather we are now enjoying, will set the sap to circulating, and prepare the chestnut and willow for whistles. The boys will soon be at it, and we shall have the shrill sound piercing our ears from every direction. We love to think of those things with which we beguiled many an hour in happy childhood sport. Holmes, in the Atlantic Almanac, says: "Who does not love to make a willow whistle, or to see one made? Can you not recall your first lesson in the art—the cutting of the flexible bough, the choosing a smooth part, pa sing the knife around it, above and below, pounding it judiciously, wringing it earnestly, and feeling the hollow cylinder of bark at last slipping on the sappy, ivory white, fragrant wood? The little plaything grew, with growth of art and civilization, to be the great organ which thunders at Harlem or in Boston. Respect the willow whistle."

THE NURSERY.—We have received this excellent little monthly for May. If you would make your younger children happy, and do them good, let them have a monthly visit from The Nursery. It will be better than all the playthings and picture-books that you could buy for five times the money. $1.50 a year in advance. Address John L. Shorey, 13 Washington st., Boston, Mass.

"HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF."—It has often been said that history repeats itself, and that one may find a parallel for any condition of the state or the nation by consulting the records of history. The same may be said of the fashions. They are constantly repeating themselves. Our grandmothers can tell of a time in their youth when the fashion of wearing the hair was almost precisely similar to that of the present day. Hoops were worn hundreds of years ago, while the high heels to be found on the shoes of nine out of ten of the women of the present day are not a novelty by any means. We remember the time when tight pantaloons were all the rage—the tighter the better.—The latest indications from England dress coats are going out, and that blue concerning the fashions are that the black coats with brass buttons, the same as those in whichour fathers and grandfathers courted our mothers and grandmothers, are coming into fashion.—Hunt up your blue coats with brass buttons—they are again the agony.

THE MAY NUMBER OF THE OLD GUARD.—The contents of the present issue of The Old Guard are of especial interest:—I. "The Nature of the Rump Revolution," by the Editor. 2. "Astorre Manfredi" (continued). The two chapters, X. and XI., Cæsar Borgia and his Evil Genius, and The Abduction, are full of power. 3. "Dead Under the Roses"—Chapters XI. and XII., "When the Heavens Look Troubled Thus, Earth Can't be Long at Peace." 4. "Thine Eyes" (poetry); "The Ivy and the Oak" (poetry); "Epigram' (poetry); 'Those Eyes' (poetry); 5. "Types of Mankind" (by Dr. Van Evrie)-The Esquimaux. 6. "Sub Rosa," a Maiden's Love Story. 7. Moral and Intellectual Characteristics of Savage Races." 8. "Horrible Persecution in the South." 9. "Pendleton's Plan." 10. "Is the Democratic Party United?" 11. "History of the Tenure of Office Bill." 12. "Our Book Table," showing a very choice selection of dishes; and the "Editor's Table," which is well sustained, completes one of the most readable numbers of The Old Guard yet issued. Single copies, 25 cents; $3 per year. Van Evrie, Horton & Co., publishers, No. 162 Nassau street, New York.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This publication improves with every Number. It contains double the amount of reading matter which it did at first, and has a succession of the brilliant colored pictures and toy novelties which have done so much to establish its reputation. It is a bright, clear and instructive little Monthly. We recommend it to all who wish to supply their families with a good juvenile periodical. Subscription price, $1.50, with a premium knife or microscope, etc. Publication office, 473 Broadway.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of this place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew.

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party, every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.

Publications.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are surpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one.
